Mr Julius E. Harp,
Assistant City Manager,
Redlands, California.,

Dear Eddie:

Replying to your letter of April 4, 1952, relative to city audit.

I shall be glad to take over for the next three years, if the council so wishes, and think that in view of the higher costs of living and everything connected with it, the stepping the cost up to $ 500.00 a year would not be out of line, especially if I endeavor to get the work done more promptly, which ought to be possible, inasmuch as I am curtailing the physical efforts somewhat.

Kind regards

Am up north for ten days or so more.

4-14-52 - It would be my recommendation to accept this figure of $500 per year. J.E. Harp
