Minutes of the regular meeting of the Redevelopment Agency of the City of Redlands of February 19, 1985, were approved as submitted.

Mrs. Beswick said there has been interest from two or three investors in revitalizing the Citrus Village Shopping Center, and asked the other members to think about what we can do to help in this project.

Mr. Larsen reported that he and Derrill Quaschnick have met with a non-profit group, and this may be a possible vehicle to work on the industrial park concept. Preliminary results will be presented at a future meeting.

The Redevelopment Agency meeting adjourned at 3:13 P.M.

Next regular meeting, March 19, 1985.

Attest:

Carol Desnick
Chairman, Redevelopment Agency

Gennie Payne
Secretary
