ORAL PETITIONS

Dr. James D. Hester, 1049 Dracena Court, Assistant Professor of Church History at the University of Redlands, and secretary of the Concerned Citizens Committee, addressed the Council and presented a covenant. This committee has sought and received support from many local organizations, and requests that Council issue a proclamation endorsing this covenant and asking community support for it. Mayor Burroughs congratulated Dr. Hester on this endeavor, and stated that if the principles of the covenant are conscientiously applied and patiently developed, a spirit of working democracy could be developed which might set an example to benefit other communities, the county and the state. The Council spoke in appreciation and admiration of the purpose of this covenant.

Covenant

Human Relations Council Mr. John Coleman of 1519 Bellevue presented two petitions to Council; one relating to the establishment of a Human Relations Commission and the other to establishing a permanent memorial in honor of Dr. Martin Luther King.

The differences between and relative values of a commission as compared with a strong community organization were discussed at length, following which Councilman Cummings requested that a study be made by the staff.

Also addressing Council relative to the above, were Bill Cooper of 411 Brookside, Doris Guynes of 850 West Lugonia Avenue and Mr. Arthur E. Gregory.

Mrs. Ruth Cranmer Patton reviewed some of the early history of Redlands, and expressed the hope that Redlands might become again a community with a single identity and a unanimity of purpose.

Mayor Burroughs then thanked all the audience for the sincerity of their comments and closed the section of oral petitions.
