Santa Ana Wash

Mayor Pro Tem Wormser called to order the joint meeting with members of the City Council of the City of Highland to discuss the future of the Santa Ana River Wash area. Also present were Peter Rusher from the Water Conservation District and members of citizens committees opposing the Tri-City Aggregate project proposed to be located in the Santa Ana Wash.

Everyone present agreed there was a need to protect the Wash; that a master plan for future generations was urgently needed and that this master plan must be established and enforced by all governmental agencies involved. It was suggested a committee be formed, such as was done for the recently-approved I-10 Corridor Specific Plan, and that the County be directed to not take any action on any development requests until this area is under the jurisdiction of the Cities of Redlands and Highland.

Tri-City
Aggregate

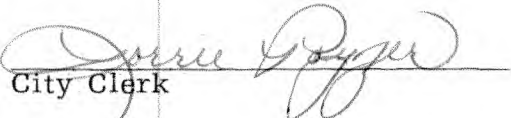

Of more immediate concern is the Tri-City Aggregate application scheduled to be heard at the County Planning Commission meeting on January 26, 1989. Councilmember Cunningham suggested a committee consisting of two members from each of the City Councils and two members from each of the citizens committees and a representative from the Water Conservation District Board of Directors meet very soon with our County Supervisor. The City Attorney from the City of Highland recommended that we, as a group, request denial of this project without prejudice and to ask the applicant to request a continuance. It was agreed that Highland Councilmembers Dennis Johnson and Jody Scott and Redlands' Councilmembers DeMirjyn and Cunningham would meet with representatives from the two citizens committees Monday, January 16, 1989, at 5:30 P.M. in the Redlands City Hall. As Highland's City Attorney cannot be present at that time, the Redlands' City Attorney will attend.

There being no further business, the meeting adjourned at 8:45 A.M. to an adjourned regular meeting to be held on Tuesday, January 17, 1989, at 7:30 A.M. at Griswold's Smorgasbord to meet with members of the Redlands Unified School District Board of Education. That meeting will then be adjourned to 2:30 P.M. on the same day.

Next regular meeting, January 17, 1989, at 3:00 P.M.
