This special meeting of the City Council was scheduled for consideration of Ordinance No. 1788, an ordinance of the City of Redlands implementing the initiative ordinance to moderate growth within the City of Redlands and to preserve the City's unique environment and character and repealing Ordinances Nos. 1680, 1717, 1742, and 1748. Mayor Roth called the meeting to order at 6:10 P.M.

Ordinance
No. 1788

Councilman DeMirjyn moved to approve Ordinance No 1788, and refer to staff for study his suggestion to award bonus points for one acre or more lots developed in certain flood zones. Motion was seconded by Councilman Martinez.

Proposition
"R"

Attorney Riddell pointed out the defective deadline dates contained in the ordinance that was given first reading on May 18, 1982, and suggested the dates be amended before proceeding. The motion to approve Ordinance No. 1788 was withdrawn by Councilmen DeMirjy and Martinez.

Ordinance
No. 1788

Proposition
"R"

Councilman Martinez then moved to change the filing and allocation dates for 1982 under Section III-C as follows: the first allocation date for 1982 shall be September 7 and the first filing deadline for 1982 shall be July 15. Motion was seconded by Councilman Johnson and carried unanimously.

Councilman DeMirjyn moved to give Ordinance No. 1788, as amended, first reading of the title with waiver of the reading of the ordinance in full, and to direct staff to study his proposal regarding the flood zones and the one acre or larger lots. Motion seconded by Councilman Martinez.

Councilman Johnson read a brief statement reflecting his desire to put the debate on this ordinance to rest in order to carry on with the business of running the City which he felt was in the best interest of the public.

Councilman DeMirjyn's motion was unanimously approved by Council.

There being no further business on the agenda, Council adjourned, on motion, at 6:20 P.M.

Next regular meeting, June 15, 1982.

Mayor of the City of Redlands
